Week 3: Did you Know? Why Does the Church Oppose In Vitro Fertilization (IVF)?

Infertility can be a profound source of suffering for couples who long to welcome a child. The Church shares that sorrow and encourages treatments that seek to heal the causes of infertility. But not every method of achieving pregnancy is morally acceptable.

In IVF, conception takes place outside the marital union in a laboratory. The process separates the conception of a child from the loving bodily union of husband and wife, including by obtaining the reproductive cells needed for conception apart from that union. The Church teaches that bringing new life into the world should not be separated from the complete gift of husband and wife to one another in marriage.

This teaching never diminishes the dignity of a child conceived through IVF. Every child, regardless of the circumstances of conception, is equally precious, loved by God, and deserving of our love.

IVF also commonly creates multiple embryos. Some may be frozen, tested, discarded, or destroyed. But embryos are not simply “biological material.” Each is a new human life deserving protection. The Church does not oppose medicine or infertility treatment. Treatments that heal underlying problems and assist the marital union in achieving conception can be morally good. What the Church rejects are procedures that replace that union or fail to respect embryonic human life.

A child is always a gift to be received, never a product to which anyone has a right.

For further reading: Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2373–2379; Dignitas Personae, 12–16.

Semana 2 — ¿SABÍAS QUE...? ¿Por qué se opone la Iglesia a la fecundación in vitro (FIV)?

La infertilidad puede ser una fuente de profundo sufrimiento para las parejas que anhelan recibir el don de un hijo. La Iglesia comparte ese dolor y anima a buscar tratamientos que procuren sanar las causas de la infertilidad. Sin embargo, no todo método para lograr un embarazo es moralmente aceptable. En la FIV, la concepción tiene lugar en un laboratorio, fuera de la unión matrimonial. El proceso separa la concepción de un hijo de la unión corporal y amorosa del esposo y la esposa, incluso al obtener fuera de esa unión las células reproductivas necesarias para la concepción. La Iglesia enseña que traer una nueva vida al mundo no debe separarse de la entrega completa del esposo y la esposa el uno al otro en el matrimonio.

Esta enseñanza nunca disminuye la dignidad de un niño concebido mediante la FIV. Todo niño, sin importar las circunstancias de su concepción, es igualmente precioso, amado por Dios y digno de nuestro amor.

La FIV también suele producir varios embriones. Algunos pueden ser congelados, sometidos a pruebas, descartados o destruidos. Pero los embriones no son simplemente “material biológico”. Cada uno es una nueva vida humana que merece ser protegida.

La Iglesia no se opone a la medicina ni al tratamiento de la infertilidad. Los tratamientos que buscan sanar problemas subyacentes y ayudan a la unión matrimonial a lograr la concepción pueden ser moralmente buenos. Lo que la Iglesia rechaza son los procedimientos que sustituyen esa unión o que no respetan la vida humana embrionaria.

Un hijo siempre es un don que se recibe, nunca un producto al que alguien tenga derecho.

Para profundizar: Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, 2366–2370; Humanae Vitae, 11–16.

Nothing Can Trouble

Taizé Chant with Lyrics from St. Teresa of Avila

Nothing can trouble, nothing can frighten. Those who seek God shall never go wanting.
Nothing can trouble, nothing can frighten. God alone fills us.

"Nada Te Turbe" ("Nothing Can Trouble") is a meditative Taizé chant based on a prayer attributed to St. Teresa of Ávila, the great Spanish mystic and Doctor of the Church, whose feast day we celebrated on October 15th. Its words remind us that all things pass away, but God never changes. Sung during Holy Communion, the chant invites us to find our peace and fulfillment in Jesus Christ, truly present in the Eucharist, for God alone is enough.

Nada Te Turbe

Nada te turbe, nada te espante. Quien a Dios tiene nada le falta.

Nada te turbe, nada te espante. Solo Dios basta.

"Nada Te Turbe" es un canto meditativo de la comunidad de Taizé, basado en una oración atribuida a Santa Teresa de Jesús (de Ávila), gran mística española y Doctora de la Iglesia, cuya fiesta celebramos el 15 de octubre. Sus palabras nos recuerdan que todo pasa, pero Dios nunca cambia. Cantado durante la Sagrada Comunión, nos invita a encontrar nuestra paz y plenitud en Jesucristo, verdaderamente presente en la Eucaristía, porque solo Dios basta.

Oración a

— ORACIÓN —

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha.

Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio.
Que Dios manifieste sobre él su poder,
es nuestra humilde súplica.
Y tú, oh Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial,
con el poder que Dios te ha conferido, arroja al infierno a Satanás, y a los demás espíritus malinos que vagan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas.
Amén.

Nationwide Invitation to Prayer

The USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities is inviting Catholics to join a focused effort of prayer and action to stop the spread of abortion pills by invoking the intercession of St. Joseph, Defender of Life. Join us in prayer from now until the end of October!

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you.

May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish and safeguard God's most precious gift of life.

*Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life —especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things.
Amen.*

Prayer List

*Names will remain on the prayer list for six months.
If your loved one still needs prayers, please call the office to add them.

*Los nombres se mantendrán en la lista de los enfermos por seis meses. Si su ser querido necesita oración, por favor llame a la oficina para agregarlo.
